

FACILITATORS

Our team of experienced facilitators are made up of mission educators, mission agency personnel, missionaries, and others with significant short-term experience.

If the date of this QLD MIST course does not suit you, MIST is also being run at various times in Victoria, NSW and South Australia. For more information please check out www.missionsinterlink.org.au

The next MIST in QLD will be held 15th-17th October 2010

“What did I learn from MIST? Where do i start? Just how much I wasnt prepared for Short term (even though i thought I was!). How invaluable good preparation is, that short term mission is no walk in the park. I think I am now also better equipped to pray and care for missionaries better. It was great to be around others who are heading in a similar direction.”

MISSIONS INTERLINK SHORT TERM TRAINING

PREPARATION FOR SHORT TERM MISSION

19-21 March 2010

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

MIST (Missions Interlink Short-term Training) introduces some of the significant issues relating to life, work and Christian faith as a Short-termer serving in a cross-cultural setting.

We strongly encourage participants to come with the support of their sending agency and church.

MIST IS AN INTERACTIVE COURSE COVERING THE FOLLOWING AREAS:

- The biblical basis for mission
- Having realistic expectations
- Culture shock and adjustment
- Knowing yourself
- Knowing your location/host culture
- Sharing your faith
- Health and wellbeing
- Authority issues
- Cross cultural communication
- Dealing with conflict
- Spirituality and spiritual warfare
- Packing and other practicalities
- Re-entry to your home culture

THE BENEFITS OF MIST ARE:

- Sharing with a like-minded group who have a commitment to mission & International service.
- A training program facilitated by experienced mission workers drawn from a variety of organisations and situations.
- Community living enabling peer support, interaction and learning.

MIST is designed for those going on individual short-term placements, but it can also accommodate teams.
