about

about the program

MIST (Missions Interlink Short-term Training) introduces some of the significant issues relating to life, work, and Christian faith as a short-termer serving in a cross-cultural setting or as a member of a short-term team.

benefits

benefits of MIST

- Sharing with a like-minded group who have a commitment to missions and international service.
- A training program facilitated by experienced mission workers drawn from a variety of organisations and situations.
- Training with peers enables support and interactive learning.

MIST is designed for those going on individual short-term placements up to 9 months and can accommodate teams.

Contact Missions Interlink to discuss whether the program is suitable for your needs.

other details

We strongly encourage participants to come with the support of their sending agency and church.

MIST covers topics such as:

- Knowing and sharing your faith
- Culture stress/shock
- Cross-cultural communication
- Health and practicalities
- “Being” in another culture
- Re-entry

It does not cover:

- Country or religion-specific information
- Learning another language
- How a particular mission trip will operate
- Relating to a supporting & sending church

We may be able to suggest resources in these areas.
